

SHAKESPEARE'S GLOBE

GENERAL INFORMATION

HOW TO FIND US.

Shakespeare's Globe is situated in the heart of Bankside by the River Thames. Aside from the Globe itself, the local area is full of restaurants, shops and entertainment. The excellent transport links make travelling and exploring London easy. This booklet is a guide to the amenities available around the Globe Theatre. We hope you find it useful and thoroughly enjoy your time here.

UNDERGROUND STATIONS

The circle on the map above shows the location of Shakespeare's Globe. The nearest underground stations are London Bridge (Northern & Jubilee), Southwark (Jubilee) and Mansion House and Cannon Street (District and Circle Lines). Mansion House and Cannon Street are about a 10 minute walk over Southwark Bridge and London Bridge station is about a 10 minute walk through Borough Market. Follow signs to Borough Market from the platform when leaving the station to ensure you come out of the correct exit.

OTHER LINKS

Overland trains run from London Bridge (various south/southeast including Brighton), Cannon Street (south) and Waterloo (various southwest).

Numerous buses travel along Borough High Street and Southwark Street. London Bridge Station has a large bus terminal near the main entrance (just a few minutes further than the Borough Market exit). There is an information desk inside the bus terminal.
